Board of Health. SMALL POX-HORSE DISEASE-VAN STREET SHANTIES.

A meeting of the board of health was held last evening at their rooms on F street, and Dr. Verdi, as health officer, reported that since the 9th instant 12 cases of small pox have been repo. ted, and 4 deaths from the disease; that sinco the 4th lest, there had been 112 dead horses reperfed-averaging 32 per day-80 from the epi-demic. Dr. Verdi farther reported: "In connection with this unusual mortality of horses in our city I would state that it is not probably due to a more violent type of epidemic than in other cities; but rather from the fact that many of the horses have been employed on the extensive public works of the last season, in which I have no doubt horses and mutes have been overworked, and not fed in proportion to the work performed. Few of said horses could withstand the fatal effect of the disease. Dr. Verdi also read a letter from the board of public works stating that the board would pay for the disinfectants already used, but would no. pay for the distribution. If the board of health had to pay for the distribution, $1,200 would be required; referred to the sanitary commitiee. Also, the report of the work of inspections in regard to nulsances for work ending November 9th, showing a total of 427. Of these 236 were abated, 107 referred to the board of public works, and 97 are unabated. Also, that Dr. Stewart had vaccinated 187 parties. Also, submitted the report of Superinterdent Gatchell, stating that during the two weeks ending 9th inst. there were condemned 91 pounds of meats, 15 chickens, 7 rabbits, 1 bushel beans, 360 bushels of oysters, and 2 veal calves. Also, that the physicians of the poor had vaccinated

A letter from Mr. R. B. Clark, in answer to the report of Dr. Verdi respecting the shanties on Van street, stating that each of the shanties have tight roofs, two connecting rooms, with a window and door to each; that the ventilation is complete, and although the r nt seems to be ex-cessive it amounts to less than 7 cents per room per week, and such shanties will be in demand by the poor until the board of health or public spirited citizens build better houses at low

Dr. Verdi stated that he had no feeling in the matter; that he did not know Mr. Clark; and had made the report as a matter of duty, and he moved that the whole subject be referred to a special committee; adopted, and Drs. Bliss and Verdi were appointed.

WE CALL ATTENTION with more than ordinary pleasure and earnestness to the appeal of the managers of the Children's Hospital, which will be found in another column of to-day's paper. So quietly has this institution performed its good work that comparatively few of our estizens are aware of its existence; and this circumstance makes its appeal all the more worthy of heed. The medical department of the institu-tion is in the hands of some of our best physi-cians, and its general affairs are managed by a board of gentlemen whose character is the best poss lile guarantee that all contributions to the establishment will be wisely and economically expended. There are, indeed, few charitable institutions in the city, if any, more worthy of public support and sympathy, nor one better worth a visit by those who are charitably inclined. Let us hope this modest appeal for aid will not fall on unwilling ears or ungenerous

THE THEATERS.—The "Red Pocket-Book" is a decidedly sensational, but very interesting play, and will no doubt draw well. It abounds in startling effects of various kinds, and the machinery worked very well last night at the National Theater for a first performance.

The patrons of the Theater Comique are getting the worth of their money and more besides, in the way of opera, ballet, drams, comedy, gymnastics, &c., &c., this week. Little Sappho should be seen by all play-goers.

GEN'L ROGER C. WEIGHTMAN is not dangerously Ill, but sits up every day and takes his meals regularly. His health has been bad for several months past, and he suffers from a dropsical affection, but his attending physician, Dr. Maxwell, expresses the opinion that his condition is as good now as it has been at any time since June last.

Effect of the Rain on the Horse Disease - Increase of Mortality - No Street Cars Bunning.
The weather being rainy to-day most of the horses in use yesterday were withdrawn as a precautionary measure. For the same reason the street cars stopped running early last evening, and to-day none are out. In consequence of this almost everybody is again peripatetic and will probably be obliged to depend on "shank's mare" as leng as the bad weather continues. Persons living at the navy yard and in Georgetown, but whose business lies in the central portions of the city, have an enforced walk of several miles every morning and evening, some of them twice a day, and, as may be suo. posed, are considerably disgusted at the tenacions manner in which the "hoss disease" hangs They may solace themselves, however, with the belief that this state of things can't last much longer, and that a little exercise wi tend toward off dyspepsia and other kindred diseases. But then, on the other hand, they run the risk of "catching their deaths of cold" slo-hing through the wet streets.

From the equine mortuary reports received at the sanitary office, police headquarters, daily, it would not seem that the virulence of the epidemic has lessened. Up to last night twentyber is a considerable increase over the preceding day. It is believed, however, that in some cases upon the subject, and a conference with Mr. reports of deaths are duplicated. Most of the of those first taken have fully recovered and are died yesterday was one of the valuable pair of matter to the manage carriage horses owned by Mr. Alexander Ray, that he did not think of the rest end. DEATHS TO-DAY.

The following is the report of dead horses up to 2 o'clock this afternoon: One of 22d street. between M and N, N. W.; one on 8th street, beween B and C, S. E.; one on G street, between th and 7th, S. W.; one on 11th street, between S and T. N. W.; one at 3d and G streets, N. E; one in alley between F street and Massachusetts wenue and 1st and North Capitol streets, N. W.; one between G and H and 4th and 5th treets, N. E.; one between 1st street and New ersey and D and E streets, N. W.; and one on street, alley, between 4th and 5th streets, N. W.; one at corner 19th street and New York avenue; one in alley between I and K and 15th and 16th streets; one in alley between 11th and 12th and Q and R streets; one on New J.rsey avenue, between L and M, S. E.; one near between I and K streets, S. E; one at canal, co.ner3d and N streets, S. E.; corner 18th and M streets, N. W. One of Allison Nailor, jr.'s donkeys, whose illness was noted in THE STAR a few days since, died suddenly yesterday. It had apparently almost recovered from the epidemic, and was considered entirely out of danger. Suddenly, however, he began to breathe with difficulty, and five minutes after was a dead donkey. His companion is better, and will probably soon be Old "Tag," of Franklin engine, is still very sick, but appears a trifle better. He eats a lit-tie, but his breathing is still labored. The other horses of the company are doing well.

THE HORSE DISEASE AND STREET IMPROVE-MENTS. Inspector Wm. F. Wallace, in reply to a renest of the board of public works to inspect the perses of the various contractors and report how soon they will be able to resume work on the improvements of the various streets, reports that in accordance with directions he visited the stables of the largest contractors, and found the horses and mules attacked with the prevailing horse disease; that the horses appeared to be more susceptible to the disease than the mules. although among them were several bad cases; that some of the horses first attacked were convalescent, but appeared weak and somewhat reduced in flesh. Should the weather continue pleasant they will be able to commence work in Should the weather continue few days. He saw some bad cases, and should they recover will not be able to do any work for at least thirty days-if put to work too soon, and a relapse should take place, death will be the in-

District Improvements. OCTION OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS Mr. James Toweles was informed, in reply to a request that he may be permitted to plant trees on 9th street northwest, that the parking commission have not decided upon the species of trees to be used, and that the board cannot recommend the pianting by individuals unless in accordance with the uniform plan adopted; the request therefore is not granted at present. Mr. Joseph Daniels was granted permission to erect a cedar hitching post inside the curb on 16th street. Mr. David Roche was denied the privilege of taking gravel from H street, near lst street, to be used on the latter. L. S. Filbert was directed to take up the wooden pavement on I street north for a distance of fifteen feet from 10th street, and relay the same with a gentle slope to meet the grade of 10th street. The chief engineer was directed to make a con-tract with Daniel Connolly to set curb and lay gutter on A street southeast, between 6th and 7th. The superintendent of sewers was directed to have M. P. Brennan, the contractor who laid the sewe, on the north side of I street, between 4th and 5th streets northwest, clean out and put the same in proper condition; also to relay the sidewalk torn up for the said sewer. The board recommended that the hayscales formerly used on the old Northern market site be removed to the Corcoran square at once. Mr. C. E. Evans was notified that it is time the sidewalk on Connecticut avenue, between I and M streets, was finished, and requesting its speedy completion. The parking commission were directed to trim the trees slong the Franklin telegraph line, to prevent them from interfering with the working of that line.

TO-DAY. Messrs. Carl Mueller & Son were informed by the board of public works, in reply to a communication in relation to the bad condition of the roof of an old frame house on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, near 3d street, that the inspector of buildings reports that the same should be repaired, but as it is a question between neighbors the board cannot interfere. Mr. George W. Driver was granted permission to place an ornamental water trough in front of his premises on Pennsylvania avenue, and erect a hitching-post on the curb line until further notice. Messrs. S. W. K. Handy and John Pettibone, in reply to a communication in relation to the preservation of the trees on 14th street southwest, were informed that the grading of that street, from B street to Maryland avenue, cutting down in front of Mr. Pettibone's house about four feet left the old trees with the roots exposed, and that the parking commission therefore directed their removal, which action is approved by the board. The chief engineer was directed to cause the contract of the Manhattan Paving Company to be extended so as to include the construction of an area wall 40 feet long and 3 feet high in front of the premises of Mr. Walbridge, on the corner of 15th street and Ohio avenue. The contract made with Mr. Hugh Murray was amended so as to include the laying of sewer laterals for the alleys and corner drops on 23d street northwest, between G street and Pennsylvania avenue. Inspector Wallace was directed to have the contractor for the improvement of 4% street rectify certain faulis made in the work; among them the placing of gutters in front of residences, over the pavement, causing the filth to accumulate at the curb. &c Messrs. Bartlett & Williams were awarded a contract for laying a 12-inch pipe sewer on the north side of C steeet. hetween 3d and 4% streets. The inspector was directed to have the gas and water services put in on Massachusetts avenue, between 14th and 15th streets, at the earliest possible moment.

COMPLIMENT BY A FOREIGN MINISTER TO Our Public Schools.—The American system of common school education comes in for compliments from many foreign sources, and this fact, instead of making us vain and filling us with the idea that our method is as near perfection as possible, should incite us to new efforts to advance our educational standard still higher. Mr. E. Bernard, the Minister Resident of Nicaragua at Washington, pays a graceful tribute to our Washington schools, when he says, in acknowledging from Mr. A. Hart, a trustee of our public schools, the receipt of a copy of the District school report for the years 1870-1:

"Through your courtesy and that of Superintendent Wilson I was enabled to examine, in its minutest details, that model institution of yours for primary schools, called the Franklin school; and truly for my improved to the same truly for and truly, sir, my impression is, that however favorable the report may be, I consider it far behind the reality. Your practical and gentle system of teaching, the admirable order and deportment that prevail among the pupils, and the architectural beauties of the buildings devoted to that most important matter of all devoted to that most important matter of pri-mary education, must surely make of schools a place attractive for children, instead of a source

The republic of Nicaragua has of late years exhibited a commendable desire for the advancement of popular education among its people, and the interest and zeal displayed by its able representative to the United States in the same cause is an indication that his country is anxious to avail itself of any advantages to be derived from a careful inspection of the educa-tional systems of other countries.

THE COLOR QUESTION.

T. A. Davis asked that some colored brother from the M. E. church be appointed on the committee. Several members among both white and colored ministers objected, on the ground that they did not wish any distinction whatever to be introduced. Mr. Davis withdrew the request, and disclaimed any intention of making a distinction, but thought as so many of his race were so much interested that it would seem to come nearer to them if one of their number was appointed on the committee. THE LINCOLN HALL SERVICES.

Dr. Rankin, in speaking of his connection with the lecture committee before the class of christian workers, said he had declined to serve, as he thought the opening of Lincoln Hall for Sabbath evening exercises was not in the spirit of co-operation with the churches. Dr. Butler Smith, the president of the association, had been orses seem to be improving, and, in fact, many | invited. The question had never been submit of those first taken have fully recovered and are being used daily. Among the animals which thought there was an indisposition to submit the matter to the managers. He was frank to say

> MISS SMILEY OR ANY OTHER WOMAN should be encouraged to take the pulpit to preach. He belonged to a denomination that did not approve of putting women in the pulpit; so did Dr. Butler. He thought that if ministers were to endorse such things he wanted to know it. It was sometimes said that the ministers ought to come there, to Lincoln hall, to be converted. He thought Brother Hall ought to be converted. It was not just the thing to make a spiritual atmosphere wherein we must live and nowhere else. Here Mr. Hall entered the room. and Dr. Rankin repeated his remarks, and asked Mr. Hall if he thought the preaching at the churches was the kind of preaching that converted men.

> Mr. Hall disclaimed ever having made any remark to the contrary.
> On motion of Dr. Dashiel, Rev. G. A. Hall was invited to participate in the exercises of the meeting.

> Dr. Rankin had prepared SOME RESOLUTIONS ON THE SUBJECT. and asked if he should read them. It was voted to have them read, and the Doctor read the resolutions, regretting the holding of public services and the keeping of an open reading room and library by the Y. M. C. A. of this city at the regular hours of church worship on the Lord's Day, considering them inconsistent with the resolutions adopted at Portland by the international convention held there in 1869. In connection with this subject Rev. Dr. But-ler presented a letter from the managers of the Y. M. C. A., offering to consult with the preach> ers on the subject. Dr. Sunderland cautioned them not to get into a muss; he was desirous of suiting both brother Rankin and brother Hall. Mr. Hall explained that the practice had been inaugurated with the sanction of several of the ministers who had taken part with them. They had submitted it to the board, and Dr. White had said that the Lord had decided the matter, as thirty-five had rose for prayers. Dr. Kankin .- "Are you willing to submit the matter to the managers?"

Mr. Hall .- "Certainly."
Dr. R .- "I tell you, brother Hall, I have thought that you managed it all; that you have thrown the burthen upon us after getting the meeting started." Dr. Lanahan said it must INEVITABLY LEAD TO CONFLICT to hold meetings during service hours. He was amazed. Dr. Rankin said a pastor had told him of a class of young men in his church that he failed to interest after they had been down to the association. They had a better time down here. Dr. Dashiel regretted that this had led to a partial disagreement between the churches. He came to hear Miss Smiley, brought an Episcopal minister with him, and they were both deeply affected.

A WOMAN HAS YOUR SYMPATHY TO BEGIN WITH. If she is pretty, and has a sweet voice, and is gentle, why you are more affected. Dr. Butler confessed that there was an at. mosphere around the meetings of the association that did not please him.
Dr. S. A. Wilson hoped the association would confine itself to its legitimate work; it was not the church, but an auxiliary to it. Finally, on motion of Dr. Rankin, the whole subject was left with a special committee to report next Monday.

F. H. Smith read two resolutions from the Portland meeting, showing that the object of the association was to aid the churches. He thought the members of the association were loyal to the churches. If they had made any mistake it would be corrected. On motion, Dr. Butler was made chairman of the committee. Dr. Sunderland was nominated, but declined, saying he did not want anything to do with it, and was not in sympathy with them at all. Several members urged him to serve, and he withdrew his objections Drs. Dashiel, Rankin, Seaton, Parker, and Drinkhorse were added to the committee.
